Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Corey Davis, 26, of Madison, was sentenced today by U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to five years in prison, followed by five years of supervised release for possessing with intent to distribute 5 grams or more of cocaine base. Davis pleaded guilty to this charge on May 15, 2007.

Davis jointly sold crack cocaine to an undercover officer on February 12, 2007, with co-defendant Johnnie Plummer. Plummer and Davis were selling crack out of Plummer's residence, while Davis provided the stash house. A search warrant was executed at Davis's house, which resulted in the discovery of a total of 13 grams of crack cocaine, 38 plastic baggies with corners missing (a common method used in packaging crack cocaine), and a gun in a safe. Plummer's sentencing hearing is August 10, 2007 at 1:00 p.m.

The charges against Davis were the result of an investigation conducted by the Dane County Narcotics and Gang Task Force. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.
